Technology & Data Centers: Duos-Axe Compute Deal Transfers Ownership of 2,304 NVIDIA GPUs, Separating Hardware From Data Center Operations

Published: 23 October 2026 | Author: David Daoud

Duos Technologies and Axe Compute completed a transaction on September 30 transferring ownership of a 2,304-GPU computing cluster in Columbus, Georgia, while Duos retained ownership and operation of the data center housing the equipment. Announced October 5, the agreement illustrates how ownership of artificial intelligence infrastructure can be separated from the facilities supporting it.
